

In collaboration with the European Network Europa Nostra "PERREVIA" Network sets up a special Scientific Committee seeking Monuments that are in danger throughout Greece

A pan-European campaign for the preservation and protection of Cultural Heritage

"PERREVIA" Network started a campaign throughout Greece, in order to mobilizing public and private partners at local, national and European level, so as to locate the monuments of special cultural value, that are in danger. The "7 Most Endangered" monument is an innovative project that was launched in January 2013 by Europa Nostra with the European Investment Bank Institute as founding partner and the Council of Europe Development Bank as associated partner. It was inspired by a successful similar project run by the US National Trust for Historic Preservation.

Establishment of a Special Scientific Committee

In order for the "PERREVIA" Network to support a program of high requirements and specialization, such as the "7 Most Endangered" monuments, set up a 3-member scientific committee, consisting of the following recognized researchers:

1. Elias Nobilakis, Assoc. Professor University of West Attica, Preservation of architectural heritage and specialization in the preservation of stone - marble. (Scientific Committee Coordinator),
2. Christos-Nikolaos Anagnostopoulos – Professor of the University of the Aegean, Director of the Intelligent Systems laboratory and of the Postgraduate Programme "Intelligent Information Systems" of the Department of Cultural Technology and Communication of the University of the Aegean,
3. Konstantina Siountri – PhDc Cultural Technology and Communication dpt., MSc Architect Engineer Conservator - NTUA, Scientific Associate of the General Secretariat of Spatial Planning & Urban Environment of Hellenic Ministry of Environment and Energy.

The 7 Most Endangered Monuments is supported by the Creative Europe programme of the European Union, as part of Europa Nostra's networking project 'Sharing Heritage – Sharing Values':
